Date: Saturday, October 19, 2019

Time: 8:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Where: Santa Ana River Trail (3 access points)
Hidden Valley Nature Center, 11401 Arlington Ave., Riverside, CA 92505
Ryan Bonaminio Park, 5000 Tequesquite Ave., Riverside, CA 92501
San Bernardino County Hall of Records, 222 W. Hospitality Ln., San Bernardino, CA 92415

What: The Santa Ana River Trail Bike Day & Open House is a free, one day, family-focused event. Riders and guests will be welcomed in throughout the day to come experience the beauty of the Santa Ana River Trail. Each trail access point will feature short course family rides, and will have information, water, kid's activities, and prizes. Riders of all abilities are encouraged to attend and enjoy the trails for the day.

Who: This event is coordinated by:

- Riverside County Regional Park and Open-Space District (RivCoParks)
- The City of Riverside Parks, Recreation & Community Services Department
- San Bernardino County Regional Parks
- Santa Ana River Trail Trust
- Rivers & Land Conservancy

Why: This event is designed to showcase the Santa Ana River Trail, a wonderful public resource. The trail runs along the Santa Ana River and is currently 50.3 miles long, spanning from South Waterman Avenue in San Bernardino all the way to Huntington Beach at the Pacific Coast Highway. It will eventually run for a total of 110 uninterrupted miles all the way to Big Bear Lake, connecting the mountains to the ocean.
