

W.A.I.V.E. Pass Application

On August 20th, 2013, the Board of Supervisors unanimously approved “Waive Admissions Involving Entry (W.A.I.V.E.).” The policy is intended to honor the services of Veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces, National Guard and Federal & State Reserve Forces. The W.A.I.V.E. Program allows FREE access to various Riverside County facilities and events. With regards to Riverside County Regional Parks and Open-Space District, W.A.I.V.E. allows the following:

- Waive one-time admission to county owned aquatics centers and/or facilities for the Veteran and up to three additional guests on a yearly basis; and
- Waive one-time boat launching privileges for the Veteran at any county owned or operated boat launch ramp on Veterans and/or Memorial Day annually; and
- Waive day-use admission to Riverside County parks for disabled Veterans on an unlimited basis.

Pass is not valid during special events and does not include amenities such as fishing, camping, pool use or miniature golf.*
